She beat the Holliswood to the Coast by three days. The transport Grant is due from San Francisco today. The horse transport Wyefield will arrive this week from the Coast. The Conemaugh is due next week. SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 10.-The battleship Wisconsin arrived this fore-She has nearly her full armament in place, and is prepared for the trial trip tomorrow morning. The Wisconsin left San Francisco at noon yesterday, arriving off Point Conception at 8 o'clock this morning, having slowed down four hours on account of fog. There she took the trial speed course and ran over it thirty-two miles in contract time. From the east beacon NICE COTTAGE of four or five rooms, of the course to the Santa Barbara light beacon she steamed much in excess of the contract speed for a distance of four knots. In an interview this afternoon Iriving M. Scott said: We had a fine trip down. Everything was simply perfect. She is certainly one of the best boats the Union Iron Works ever turned out. We are only required to make sixteen knots, but we Tides from the United States Coast and will not be able to hold the engines down to that. The Wisconsin will leave The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur at 8 o'clock a. m. tomorrow, the weathbout one hour earlier than at Honolulu. | er permitting, for the trial speed trip. Hawallan standard time is 10 hours 30 which is four hours, full steam ahead, minutes slower than Greenwich time, be-ing that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 knot, more than was required of the minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 Oregon, which, however, made a spurt 9. m., which is the same as Greenwich, 0 during the trial, reaching seventeen and fifteen-hundredths knots. It is expected that the Wisconsin will do neary as well, though she is 1,000 tons heavier and no premium is offered for excess speed, as in the case of the Oregon." Captain A. F. Pellsbury of the Pacific Mail line will command the Wisconsin, in place of Captain Minor Goedall, who has always commanded the Union Iron Works ships before. Robert Forsythe is chief engineer. YOUNG WALDORF ASTOR.

Citizen. NEW YORK, Oct. 11.-Surrogate Thomas has appointed Waldorf Astor, the young son of William Waldorf Astor who has only recently attained his majority, an executor of the will of the original John Jacob Astor. The will under which the young man is thus made an executor, was made about fifty years. One of its provisions is that whenever the surviving executors shall number no more than two, by death or otherwise, those two shall have the power of naming, with the sanction of the courts, a third executor.

About two months ago William Waldorf Astor and Charles Peabody, Jr., went before Surrogate Thomas and stated that they were the only surviving executors of the will and that they Am. sp. Fort George, Morse, for Port | wished Waldorf Astor to be named as a co-executor. At the time the question of young Astor's place of residence and citizenship was raised. His father some time ago foreswore allegiance to the United States and became a subject of the Queen of England. This matter was arranged by Mr. Peabody making an affidavit in which he alleged that the young man was born in the United States and that he had never taken any steps to forswear allegiance to this country and that therefore he was a citizen and eligible to the position as executor. On the strength of this affidavit the appointment was made, Surrogate Thomas thereby virtually deciding that Waldorf Astor is a citizen of this country even though his father is not and that he has been educated abroad and spent the greater number of years of his life in England.
